

The most essential piece of our declaration of independence states that all men are created equal. To that end, it is absolutely unfair for the government, or any of it's subsidiaries, to rubber stamp approval of an 'elite' group of professionals for use of technology that should be available to anyone who has the means to purchase it. By only allowing Hollywood 'professionals' to utilize fully functional digital TVs, the FCC in, in effect, promoting sensorship, and theft. What happened to the United States as a democracy? has it truly become the worlds largest CAPITALIST society?
